06/02/2010	420	MANDATE of USCA (certified copy) as to Rod Blagojevich and Robert Blagojevich. It is ordered that the appeal is dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. The appeal is from neither a final decision nor otherwise immediately appealable. It is further ordered that the alternative request for mandamus relief is denied. The more appropriate manner in which to seek review of the challenged order would been to file a separate petition for a writ of mandamus and counsel will be expected to do so in the future, but we consider the alternative request in the interest of not delaying matters further. If the charges for deprivation of honest services had been the only pending counts, the denial of the request to continue the trial pending the Supreme Court's resolution of the cases pending before it might give us pause. However, the defendant face additional charges. In addition, the defendants cannot demonstrate that the challenged orders are effectively unreviewable at the end of the case. United States v. Vineyard, 539 F.3d 589, 591 (7th Cir. 2008); In re Rhone-Poulenc Rorer, Inc. 51 F.3d 1293, 1295 (7th Cir. 1995). A challenge to an order denying postponement of a criminal trial can be raised on appeal following resolution of the district court proceedings. See, e.g., United States v. Santos, 201 F.,3d 953,958 (7th Cir.2000). For further details see order.(las, ) (Entered: 06/03/2010)

11/16/2010	596	ORDER of USCA (certified copy) as to Maisha Imani Hamilton regarding notice of appeal 576 . Maisha Imani Hamilton moved to intervene in Rob Blagojevich's criminal case, alleging that Blagojevich and other coconspirators retaliated against her for reporting incidents of public corruption by members of the "Cook Count Democratic Machine." She contends that Blagojevich conspired to fabricate criminal charges against her, kidnap her, and place her in involuntary servitude in Illinois. Hamilton also requested that the district court grant her rights under the Crime Victims' Rights Act (CVRA), 18 U.S. C. 3771. The district court denied Hamilton's motion, reasoning that no rule authorizes third parties to intervene in criminal cases and that Hamilton is not the "victim" of any offenses charged in the case. The court also noted that although the CVRA gives victims the right to be "reasonably heard" regarding issues of release, plea, sentence, or parole, id 3771(a), none of those issues was currently before the court. For further details see order. (las, ) (Entered: 11/16/2010)
